

K – 12 TechSmith Relay Use Cases

| Administrator | Teacher | Student | Curriculum Director | Misc. |
|--|---|---|--|---|
| Flip staff meetings | Flip your classroom | Project-based and blended learning activities | Flip your professional development | Train staff on new technologies |
| Record staff meetings for absentees and for future reference | Create a library of supplementary material for students | Create digital portfolios | Record and give feedback on teacher observations | For athletic coaches and PE teachers to record, analyze, and share proper form and techniques for athletes and students |
| Record school-wide behavior expectation lessons to use in classrooms and/or to send home for parents | Record lessons for absent students | Create and submit digital presentations | Model and share best teaching practices | For ELL teachers to record and share videos with captions and variable-speed playback to supplement instruction |
| Record and share new routines and procedures with staff, students, and families (e.g. new drop-off/pick-up procedure, new lunch procedure) | Record lessons for guest teachers to use when you're absent; record instructions for guest teachers | Create video blogs and journals and create digital book reports | Record exemplary teachers to show other teachers | For traveling or absent students as a distance learning tool |
| Record teacher observations for evaluation | Capture teachable moments by recording on-the-fly videos of real-world examples to share with students | Create and share lessons with other students (can be used to demonstrate mastery or understanding) | Create training and how-to videos (e.g. how to put assessment scores into your LMS or how to use your online curriculum program) | For administrators, coaches, teachers, etc. to record and share reflections or highlights from conferences or other PD sessions |
| Provide video feedback for teachers on lessons and evaluations | Have students create and record lessons to demonstrate understanding or master of a concept for formative or summative assessment | Create video tutorials for staff and students | Record demos of best practices for administering assessments | For music, band, and orchestra teachers to use to have students record themselves at home and submit it to a teacher for review |
| Record teachers sharing best practices with other teachers (building-wide and district-wide) | Provide differentiated instruction by creating personalized videos for small groups to watch while you work with other students | Record real-life examples of things that pertain to what they're learning in the classroom to share | | To create videos for HR and onboarding purposes for new employees |
| Record special events at your school to share with other buildings, students, their families, etc.) | Record assessments (e.g. student reading) to share at parent-teacher conferences. | For high school students to create and submit digital college admissions essays | | For foreign language teachers to create and share videos to have students translate as an assignment or assessment |
| Record and share important messages for families (virtual newsletter) | Record field trips, special events, and student presentations | Record each other speaking and translating other languages | | |
| | Model and explain homework for students and parents | Creating and recording group projects | | |